

Title: Seiya Sugaya's Global Internship with Russell Bedford Malaysia

In our increasingly connected world, international experience is a crucial stepping stone towards a successful career. Seiya Sugaya, a student from Kyoto University of Advanced Science, embarked on a transformative international internship with Russell Bedford Malaysia, showcasing the power of hands-on global experiences in shaping future leaders.

Kyoto University of Advanced Science's Global Internship Program: Nurturing Tomorrow's Leaders

Seiya Sugaya's exceptional internship with Russell Bedford Malaysia is part of Kyoto University of Advanced Science's overseas internship program, designed to equip students with the skills required to excel on the global stage.

This program offers students the unique opportunity to immerse themselves in real-world business environments in diverse regions worldwide, from the United States to Europe and Asia, with host organizations ranging from Japanese to local companies.

A Holistic Learning Experience: Seiya's Internship at Russell Bedford Malaysia

Seiya's daily routine at Russell Bedford Malaysia is thoughtfully structured, ensuring his growth and development. His workday begins at 8:30 a.m., where he actively participates in training sessions across various departments, including audit, tax and business service divisions. This includes engaging in client meetings and fieldworks, providing him with firsthand experience in international business intricacies. As he progresses through the program, he will engage in activities like "stock take," "kick-off meetings," and "business service trainings," enriching his skill set and deepening his understanding of the global business world. This hands-on experience allows him to apply classroom learning in a professional setting.

A Wealth of Skills and Global Perspective

The Russell Bedford Malaysia internship has equipped Seiya with a wealth of valuable skills and experiences. He's honed his English language proficiency, a vital asset in today's globalized job market. Additionally, he's gained practical working experience in areas like accounting, audit, and tax, significantly contributing to his professional development. Beyond these technical skills, his time abroad has broadened his horizons, allowing him to comprehend business practices beyond Japan.

This global experience has expanded his future career prospects and has made him grateful to both Russell Bedford Malaysia and Kyoto University of Advanced Science for facilitating this invaluable international internship opportunity.
